

891 So.2d 1155 (2005)

Steven McALLISTER, Appellant, v.
BREAKERS SEVILLE ASSOCIATION, INC., Appellee.

No. 4D04-1032.

District Court of Appeal of Florida, Fourth District.

January 26, 2005.

Mark S. Mucci of Benson, Mucci & Associates, LLP., Fort Lauderdale, for appellee.

Robert Rivas, Spencer M. Sax and Ronna Friedman Young, of Sachs, Sax & Klein, Boca Raton, for appellant.

FARMER, C.J.

Reversed. The entry of a final judgment was error because no notice of trial was properly given. A notice of hearing merely stating that an "evidentiary hearing" will be held is, without more, insufficient to give proper notice to a party that a full trial on the merits of all issues in the case will be held at the specified time. We also reject the argument that the record demonstrates with adequate clarity a waiver of the notice issue by acquiescence in the trial court's insistence that counsel present her case.
